INTRODUCTION

The lineal descent of persons and families has been an interesting subject for many in all ages.

There has been for some time a desire by a number of the Miller family to have a history such as this published. At the sixth biennial reunion of the Miller family held at Shipshewana Lake, LaGrange County, Indiana, in 1925, definite steps were taken to have this work done. Simon S. Yoder, Earl Miller and Harry D. Miller were appointed as a committee to see as to getting out this work.

In commencing this work we found that possibly we have waited too long, for the older generations have passed away, and that much valuable information has been lost that might have been interesting for us and for future generations to know.

This little volume is not as complete as we would like to have made it, owing to the fact that many live in distant states and not being able to trace some of them, also a few that did not respond to questionnaires sent them.

Samuel Mueller, our first ancestor in America, came from the Canton of Berne, Switzerland, emigrated to America in the ship Chance, Charles Smith, Captain, from Rotterdam, last from Cowes, with one hundred and ninty-three passengers, landing at Philadelphia, November 1, 1763.

When this family arrived in the new world, they were extremely poor. They founded their first place of abode in some adjacent district of Germantown, Pennsylvania. How long they remained here is not known. We, however, learn that they later established themselves in Kishacoquillas valley, Mifflin County, Pennsylvania. There he procured employment on the Pennsylvania canal as a teamster on the tow-path.

During the Revolutionary War, the husband was seized from his services on the canal by a group of soldiers. Whether he was persuaded to participate in the Continental Army or held as a prisoner by the British is not known.

After the close of the war he returned home, found that his home had been vacated. Inquiring of his neighbors learned that his wife had died, and wept bitterly.

While the mother lay on her death bed, father away from home, she became much concerned about her five small children. Looking about and seeing the quiet-loving and peaceable Mennonite people around her, it became her earnest desire that her children be reared in Mennonite homes. They were not affiliated with the Mennonites nor do we know to what faith they were adherent. The father, sorrow-stricken, remained only a short time in the community. Later he married an English woman but nothing of his whereabouts was ever learned by any of his children in after years.

Christian, the eldest son, was received into the home of Hans Beiler, a pioneer bishop of Mifflin County, Pennsylvania. Hans Beiler being a blacksmith by trade, Christian, an industrious lad, aspired to the trade in which he became quite proficient as a welder of iron and won for him considerable popularity and became known as "Smith" Miller.

After he attained the age of twenty-one he started to peddling notions for a livelihood, and traveled westward across the Alleghany Mountains until he reached Somerset County, Pennsylvania, where he purchased a tract of land from Shawnee Indians, consisting of between four and five hundred acres. Here he married a young girl by the name of Berkly, and proceeded to erect a cabin in the forests of Conemaugh township.

And as said, there were but four white families in the township at the time. As we can imagine, their first dwelling was not an elaborate structure, but a rude cabin closed by the hanging of a blanket over the doorway.

During the first summer in this typical dwelling was laid the foundation for a new home, a place where his ten children were born and grew to young manhood and womenhood, a place where he died in the year 1845 and where he and his wives are buried in the family burial ground on the farm on a hill close by.

The writer of this sketch visited the old home site and the burial ground in the year, 1925, and found the ground in a very neglected condition, out in an open field with no fence around, headstones, some of them lying on their sides. When the field is pastured, stock has the run of all the ground. Possibly, in the course of years all trace of the last resting place of our worthy ancestors will be lost.

I wondered if there were a few of the many descendants who would be interested to at least enclose the ground with a good substantial fence and have the ground made in a presentable condition.

Here Christian Miller erected a blacksmith shop and farmers came for eight miles to have "Smith" Miller repair and build implements. Several days were required in covering the distance to and from the mill.

The wife, at home, had to take a path through the woods for miles to bring the cows home from pasture and hear the howling of the wolf, also meet Indians in search of game.

Christian Miller was the first pioneer minister and Bishop in the Amish Mennonite Church in Conemaugh township, in Somerset County, Pennsylvania. He had six sons and four daughters. Christian married as his second wife, Fanny Miller, who died in 1847, at the age of eighty-four years.

1. Henry born May 10, 1785, married to Anna Leyman. They reared a family of five sons and six daughters. Their residence at the time of death was in Holmes County, Ohio. He died at the age of seventy-six.

2. Elizabeth born May 26, 1787. Married to Bishop

Christian Yoder. They had two daughters and were residents of Somerset County, Pennsylvania. She died at an early age.

3. Jonathan born March 9, 1789. Married to Magdalena Kauffman. Five sons and seven daughters were born to this union. They moved to Holmes County, Ohio, in 1819. He died in LaGrange County, Indiana. September 18, 1867.

4. Solomon born April 23, 1790. Died in his youth.

5. Fanny, born in 1791. Married Christian Wenger. They had four sons and seven daughters. She died in 1860.

6. Daniel born August 26, 1793. Married Rebecca Kauffman. They had one son and five daughters. Lived near Charm, Holmes County, Ohio. He died September 8, 1861. She died September, 1879, at the age of 85 years and 7 months.

7. Jacob the father of the descendants of this history.

8. Barbara born June 28, 1797. Married Jacob Kauffman. They had no offspring.

9. Magdalena born July 29, 1803. Married Michael Troyer. They had six sons and three daughters and migrated from Somerset County, Pennsylvania, to Holmes County, Ohio, where he died in 1840. Magdalena married as her second husband, Daniel Miller and lived near Berlin. In 1859, she moved to Indiana and spent her remaining years with her daughter, Mattie, who was married to Abram Miller.

My father, D. J. Miller gathered the following ministerial statistics of the offspring of Christian Miller representing five generations.

By May 19, 1924, there were a list of twenty-one bishops, fifty-nine ministers and twenty deacons, all upholding the same banner of faith that was vigorously carried through the virgin forests of Pennsylvania, by their pioneer ancestor. Bishop Christian Miller.

CHRISTIAN MILLER'S BROTHERS AND SISTERS

1. John Miller married Catherine Yoder and resided at Winfield, Tuscarauas County, Ohio. They had five sons and four daughters.

2. Isaac Miller married Lena Honerick and lived in Holmes County, Ohio. They had no children.

4. Rachel Miller married Samuel Berkley. To this union were born six sons and four daughters.

5. Barbara Miller, the youngest child of Samuel Mueller, a native of Switzerland, married and moved to Canada.

Grandfather Jacob S. Miller took possession of the old home farm in Pennsylvania and cared for his parents until their death in 1845-1847. Jacob having a large family, the older children again became pioneers of the west. Henry and Christian were the first to leave the homeland. They with their families drove overland to Indiana, in wagons, in 1844. In 1845, John rode through on horseback. George came across country on foot. After railroads were built, others came as far as Warsaw, Indiana. Nearly all settled in one locality in LaGrange County, as shown by the sketch on page six.

Trusting that this little volume may be useful and interesting to the extent that it will instill within us a proper regard for our ancestry, and may our great aim be that future generations will look to us with respect, as worthy ancestors.

ADDENDA

After the Miller Family History had been placed on the press, the author received a number of additional notes to be included in the volume, and also a few corrections of addresses, which we are grouping on this page.

Family 235. Roy Richard Sherck, born June 7, 1927.

Family 230. Nellie Ruth Lambright, born May 18, 1927.

Family 260. Elizabeth Ann Hershberger was born in Calona, Iowa, instead of Heston, Kansas, as stated on page 56.

Family 264. Sylvan Jay Hostetler, resides at Cullom, Ill. Youngest child, Mary Ann, was born May 10, 1927.

In two or three instances descendants named in this volume were married after the material for the history had been assembled and families numbered. For this reason it was practically impossible to place the two or three new families in their proper numerical order, hence numbers were omitted.
